May 2008

The CSCIA Board of Governors met for its monthly meeting on April 14, 2008 at the Cape St. Claire Clubhouse at 7:30 p.m. in the Cox Meeting Room. President Josephine Gardner provided opening remarks and presented the agenda for the meeting.

Attendance: Governors Biondi, Campbell, Gardner, Lamb, Maltz, Morgan, Newman and Wolin were in attendance. Governors Daly, Gallagher and Pollock were absent.

President Josephine Gardner's Remarks: The forms received from the Maryland Department of Agriculture on mosquito control were completed and submitted. Representatives from that Department will be at the April 22, 2008 Quarterly Membership meeting. Councilman Cathy Vitale will also attend the April 22, 2008 meeting to discuss the Goshen Farm and "school capacity" issues.

An e-mail was received from a resident suggesting the CSCIA purchase the lot located at the Cape St. Claire Road/Hilltop Drive intersection next to Graul's, and that we let the County use the buffer area if needed, to improve that intersection. Mr. Jim Schrolls, County Road Department, will be at the May 12, 2008 Monthly BOG meeting to discuss the Cape St. Claire Road improvement project.

Minutes and Financials:

Motions were made to approve the March 10, 2008 Monthly BOG Meeting Minutes as Amended, and the February 29, 2008 Financials. These motions were seconded and unanimously approved.

Agenda Item:

A resident requested a building variance to build a privacy fence with the "good side" facing the inside instead of facing the outside as required by the CSCIA Building Code. He was provided an opportunity to address the Board to detail the reasons for his request. The reasons included: Neighbors adjourning the sides of his property have several dogs that bark when they see people and attempt to bite if given the opportunity; and existing chain link fences on the sides make it difficult to build a fence immediately adjacent with the "good side" out due to the lack of working room.

After lengthy discussion, the BOG approved a motion to meet in a Closed Session to decide on the building variance. After the Closed Session meeting, it was announced that the requested building variance was denied.

Committee Reports:

Clubhouse – Governor Lamb reported that the double-doors on the water side of the clubhouse were replaced this month.

Beaches and Parks – Governor Newman reported that a location was chosen at the Deep Creek area to install parking gates with card sensors. He will submit an application for installation and assurance that the selected location for the Deep Creek area is acceptable.

Referring back to the March 10, 2008 Monthly BOG Meeting Minutes, a couple of board members again expressed concern about the parking gate and card sensor project at the Deep Creek and Lake Claire areas, including administrative issues, vandalism of equipment, project costs and other related issues. Governor Newman addressed each of these concerns with the Board.

Roads – Governor Campbell expressed exasperation about the slow progress the County is making on the Cape St. Claire Road improvement project. Steps identified six months ago have not been taken, or, have progressed very slowly. The "90% com

Welcome to the Neighborhood

On February 1st, 2008, Cape St. Claire welcomed the newest addition to it's shopping center. The Cape Exchange, owned and operated by Annapolitans Michele Skarwecki and Linda Trice, offers local residents a new method of spring cleaning.

No, The Cape Exchange will not literally exchange your unwanted goods. But, as a consignment shop and official eBay drop-off location, they can get you some cash for your trash. After working in the shop with the ladies, it is clear that the terms "consignment" and "eBay" confuse a lot of people, but they are quick to clear things up a bit. Basically it works like this: you bring in the items you don't want (for furniture, bring a photograph and they'll pick it up for you) and the lovely ladies will research the item, tell you the expected earnings, and either sell it in the store or list it on eBay for you. Either way, you pay nothing but a small percentage of the profits and avoid the hassle of photographing, researching, listing, and shipping your items.

For the computer impaired this type of business is a godsend, and so far Cape St. Claire residents have shown just how much they appreciate the service. Residents and passersby have eagerly arrived with curiosity and excitement.

In addition to eBay services, The Cape Exchange offers a pleasant and diverse shopping experience. Michele and Linda, both former sellers at Annapolis Antiques, have an eye for the unusual, the beautiful, and the unique. The store is filled with antique and unique items from a wide range of time periods and styles. From furniture to art, books, and hand-made jewelry, they're sure to have something you can't live without.

Did you know....

Strawberry Festival in 1965; the Cape held several preludes of what was to be. In the 50s the social organizing belonged to the Women's Activities Committee. They planned parties for children, started the Teen club, and held dances for adults complete with live music and a floor show. However, there were three fund raising events which were important for everyone: the Flower Mart, May Mart, and the Bazaar. The Flower Mart was usually at the Club House the first weekend in May to coincide with Annapolis' big flower mart. Baskets, seedlings, and planters were sold, and of course there was a bake sale.

The May Mart was bigger and it marked the end of the winter, and welcomed the summer folks. Food was sold by the only 3 organizations around then: the Volunteer Fire Department and Auxiliary, the Methodist Church which met at the Club House, and the WAC.

Since most women were in all 3 organizations, they were working triple time. There were games of chance like a cake walk, and ring toss, and a horse shoe tournament in the park which ran all day. Jars with pictures of teen girls were placed at the Variety Store, Lawson's, and the gas station, and the person with the most money on the day of the Mart was crowned Queen of the May.

The biggest event was the Bazaar, which had all that the May Mart had plus a merry-go-round, pony rides, and, sometimes, even a small Ferris wheel. Later in the afternoon there was a "bathing beauty" contest to choose Miss Cape St Claire. In 1957, as if this was not enough summer fun, the Fire Department started its annual Carnival which was held in the area where McDonald's and Wendy's sit now. This carnival ran for two weekends in mid summer. In 1965 a new resident from Texas joined the WAC and brought with her the idea of a Strawberry Festival combining the Flower, May Mart and the Bazaar. Before 1975 the Strawberry Festival was a one day event much like it is today, but after 1975 it became a two day party. Unfortunately organizing a two party of this magnitude can be overwhelming and the festival did not happen for several years in the mid eighty's. When it resumed it was brought back to a one day event. In 1983 they celebrated the 25th Anniversary of the Strawberry Festival which would make 2008 the 50th Anniversary. In reality the Official Strawberry Festival did not begin until 1965 which only puts us at our 43rd Anniversary.

The Goshen Farm Preservation Society was awarded a $150,000 Bond for renovation of the Farm House. If you would like to be a part of this experience please email us at goshen-farm@cscia.org

We're all Neighbors

Now that the weather's warming up, let's try to remember that we need to share the roads with kids, pets, joggers, cyclers, sports fans and athletes crossing the street for an icy treat after the game...

Speeding vehicles on the Cape's winding and crowded roads can lead to tragedy. Let's remind ourselves and our young drivers that getting there alive and without hurting anyone or anyone's pet is more important than getting there quickly.
