President's Perspective

MARCH 2022

Dear Capers,

Hope you all are well, I tried not to write a novel, I swear, as we are in a transition period on the Board of Governors, switching President, VP, Treasurer, Secretary and Committee Chairs. Next month, we will focus again on long term planning goals, but I want to spend this message thanking those who helped pull off the CSC Beach and Shoreline Restoration Projects.

By the time you read the March's Caper, the extensive work of our Beach Projects at both site 1 & 2, Main Beach and Lake Claire should be completed! We want to thank our partners, but first a huge thank-you to the Board of Governors (BOG). The BOG has tackled an 8+ year commitment, multiple terms of service for nearly the entire board. We have funded these projects with $854,500 of community money from annual cash flow budgeting and a 15-year loan. We found matching funding awards and grants of $923,000 from Chesapeake Bay Trust, Anne Arundel County, the State of Maryland the US Fish & Wildlife Service.

We have worked with Biohabitats, Inc our engineers, planning and permitting team for six plus years. Their employees have helped us, but Joe Berg has worked with the BOG from start to finish to see this to completion. His team has included over the years Ed Morgereth, Jim Cooper, and Jim Favret. While Ed collaborated with us from 2016-2020, the Jim's have been on our Team CSC Beach Project this past eighteen or so months as we moved into final planning, permitting, and construction stages. We extend a huge thank you to Joe and his team, walking us through this long-term process.

During the course of our planning and permitting, we asked Biohabitats, Inc to coordinate and bring in Albert McCullough, who owns Sustainable Science, LLC onto our Engineer Team. Al helped design and educate us on the hydrology of Chesapeake Bay, how our shoreline interacts and how his proposed solutions will perform over the next 5,10 or 15 years and how we can sustain the progress over that time. He and Joe have attended numerous in person community meetings to help get this project completed and can't thank them both enough for their efforts!

One group that didn't get a lot of attention during this process, was the Little Magothy River Association (LMRA) SCBD who is responsible for the dredging and maintenance of the Little Magothy Channel. The Association is made of the waterfront owners on the Little Magothy River, including both those in Cape St Claire and those off Bayhead Road. The CSCIA owns five properties on the Little Magothy and is a regular voting member. Typically, with their funds raised by SCBD, the LMRA dredges every three to four years a portion of the channel to keep it navigable to boaters. The LMRA has long been an advocate for the CSCIA to build a large stone headland breakwater and to receive the dredge sands. The breakwater was completed in Spring 2021. Historically, the dredged sands have been shipped around the Bay to projects on Gibson Island, Beverly Triton Beach, and other restored shorelines. We appreciate the coordination and support, but nothing would have been possible without their volunteer board, in particular long time Caper and Engineering Committee Coordinator, Steve Miller! Steve sat in on many meetings and helped coordinate a complicated, multi-agency permitting effort to replenish the Main Beach shoreline. If you see Steve around the Cape, be sure to thank him!

I don't want to forget our partners at the Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay. They basically saved the project in 2018 when we partnered with them. We had been unsuccessful in finding matching funds from 2014-2018, and after unfortunately losing another round of competitive grants at the State and County level, I approached a long-term friend, Kate Fritz, at the time the new director of the Alliance, for help. I was personally tired of writing grant applications and losing, as was the BOG. She thought we could find avenues for fundings, and we partnered with them. Quickly we landed the $298,000 Chesapeake Bay Trust/ AACO WPRP Grant, followed by $25,000 from the State. In the following two years, the team of Abbi Huntzinger, Laura Todd our CSC Team Project Manager, and Amanda Bland, Project Associate have helped lead us to accumulate $923,000 in projects funding awards in total. A few elected officials need to be thanked again, but we will do so at public ribbon cuttings in the future.

There are others to thank for sure. Shoreline Design, LLC for the actual construction. They have performed an excellent job within the parameters of the many permitting requirements we had. They were very professional, hit their deadlines and did the work with almost no over runs to estimates, which was really important for these projects and our tight time of year restrictions in each of our rivers.

Lastly, the employees and residents of Cape deserve a kudos as we complete these projects. Town Manager, Community Administrator and Groundskeepers in particular. Our main crew of Ryan, Leslie and Dottie have performed all onsite meetings, phone calls, virtual meetings, run to and from the County & State offices when necessary, especially at deadlines. They have ensured paperwork, workflow and sites were ready when needed, sometimes at a moment's notice. Of course, support from the membership matters, but some Capers helped more than others and I'd like to thank the Cape Conservation Corps, Stacey Wildberger, Brad Knopf, Larry Jennings among others for their steadfast support. Residents Gina Hunt and Christina Ryder helped with writing and winning grants for the community. Then there are residents like Bob Bishop who have attended meetings for 4-5 years faithfully, to remain informed and function as liaison between neighbors when necessary to help the project, especially in our permitting process. Bob has worked and allowed County, State, and our team of workers to access his property to allow us easier access to the work site. I want to thank him personally for his time and effort to the Cape St Claire Beach and Shoreline Project.

I encourage you when the weather allows, to come out and walk the Main Beach and check out the biodiversity and habitat creation at Lake Claire. I encourage you to consider volunteering to help the CSCIA on the budget committee for future planning, on the BOG or just volunteer to help at the next event we hold, like the Easter Egg Hunt or Strawberry Festival. Cape St Claire is a great community to live in, many do different tasks in different organizations to ensure we stay the best place to live on the Chesapeake Bay. If you want to join the effort, let me know, reach out at President@cscia.org and we can talk about how you can help the Cape!

I hope to see y'all this spring around the Cape!

Best wishes,
Beau Breeden
President CSCIA

Volunteer Spotlight – Catherine Salam

Catherine and her late husband bought their home in the Cape in 1989. They moved here from the city of Annapolis. She remembers going to a meeting at the Broadneck Library to learn more about renting a plot at the Sharing Garden, when the "founding mother" was still head of that project. She needed more sunshine to grow her vegetables. She rented a plot, which she shared with Ginger Burris. Now they each have their own plots! Catherine's is the one with the raspberries and blackberries, so she can never give it up. Since those early days, she has found that many friends from the Cape St. Claire Garden Club have plots at the Goshen Farm Sharing Garden as well.

Catherine's activities have expanded beyond the Sharing Garden to helping at our Open Houses, either at the membership or the food tables. She has learned much more about the history of Goshen Farm, the farmhouse, and the slave garden. She values being more knowledgeable about the history of our community. She also loves the educational aspect, and the altruism of donating produce to My Brothers Pantry. It is a wonderful place to bring her young grandkids to introduce them to the wonders of nature, through the monarch way station, new bog garden, trails through the woods, native honeysuckle tent, and the beehives. The most important benefit of being a part of the Goshen Farm Preservation Society is the sense of being part of a community within a community.

If you would also like volunteer at Goshen Farm and are a member, please contact us at Communications@goshenfarm.org.

Membership Renewal

Letters to renew your membership have been mailed out. Memberships are Annual. A Household membership is $35, and an Individual membership is $20. You can renew or join online or by contacting our Membership Chair at Membership@goshenfarm.org

Cape St. Claire Garden Club

Well, so long Winter! Spring is here, right? I mean, I sure hope so! Daffodil noses were peeking out in February, along with hellebore buds, so I know they are quite ready for the first warm rays of a spring sun. Aren't we all? I am not one to rush the seasons; I honestly appreciate what each season has to offer. But these days, I must admit, winter seems to hang on a little longer than I'd like, perhaps because I have become more of a gardener over the years, and I look forward to finding planted, then forgotten, spring treasures in my garden!

The Garden Club didn't sleep over the winter, no! In February, we all learned a great deal from horticulturalist & landscape designer Claire Jones' zoom talk, including a virtual tour of her wonderful greenhouse. She gave us lots of new tips and ideas about cow pots, newspaper pots, and Root Pouch bags – ways to raise seedlings that can be transplanted directly into the ground or grown in place. She even mailed us some favorite seeds, like pumpkin-on-a-stick and hairy balls, a type of milkweed, for our annual Winter Sowing Workshop in late February, and the Club provided some of her other favorite seeds, like poppies, cosmos, and larkspur. Members brought their own clear, plastic containers to use as mini-greenhouses. We poked holes for ventilation & drainage and planted an assortment of vegetable, herb, & flower seeds. These mini-greenhouses will sit outside in the cold while soaking up the sun. It's so thrilling to see the lime-green sprouts pop by March!

Habitat Hero 4th Quarter 2021

Matt and Lenora Puglisi

Each Wednesday I make way from the Serene Ravine to the Deep Creek Piers to dispose of the invasive weeds we have cleared for that week and I began to notice a house just before the entrance of the Deep Creek Pier that had done a remarkable thing—they had removed all of their lawn! And from what I could tell from my slow ride by they had replaced the lawn with native shrubs and trees. I didn't know who lived there so I set out to find out. After tracking down their names I searched for them on the community FB page with no luck so I posted asking for anyone who knew them to ask them to get in touch with me. Lo and behold a fellow board member of CCC recognized her name from working together and she connected us. The Puglisis- Matt and Lenora. After chatting with Matt one afternoon I knew we finally had our 2021 4th Quarter Habitat Hero.

Matt knew he wanted to rip out the lawn and replace it with plants so he hired a landscape company with a very specific request, use only native plants in the landscape. Thankfully they agreed and installed a variety of native shrubs and trees. Ilex opaca American Holly, Cercis canadensis Eastern Red buds, Amelanchier spp. Serviceberry, Juniperus virginiana Eastern Red Cedars, Vaccinium blueberries, Clethra alnifolia summersweet, Viburnums, Cephalanthus occidentalis button bush and an assortment of ferns all decorate the landscape of their yard, along with mulched paths and a small grass area. His vision for a “managed forest” is being realized.

Matt had experience with traditional gardening, vegetable gardening and fruiting trees but he wanted something different, something that would support wildlife, control runoff (as he is close to the waters of Deep Creek), and slow down the rainwater heading past his property. His choice of flowering and fruiting native trees will also provide habitat and food for our local fauna as well. Supporting a diverse selection of pollinators, creating a healthy ecosystem and increasing biodiversity are all goals that will be achieved by the choices Matt has made.

He also made the decision to not use fertilizers and pesticides or other chemicals in his yard. That will be beneficial to the ecosystem around him. His choices are based on a desire to cope with climate change, filter and control storm water and provide a healthy habitat.

Long term goals for Matt include replacing the existing driveway with pervious pavers that will allow rain water to soak in and slow down. He is also setting his sights on the backyard and converting the lawn there to native plantings and removing the invasive English Ivy that is creeping in his yard from the community property behind him. He wants to make a positive impact and create a back (and front) yard oasis that will support many forms of wildlife and create a biodiverse landscape that bees, butterflies, birds and small animals will be safe and cared for. Thanks Matt for being a Habitat Hero.

You can tour Matt and all the 2021 winners on June 25th and see what they have done to be a Habitat and how simple it is to support biodiversity in your own backyard.

Stormwater Runoff Control and Solutions By: Stacey Wildberger

Our most recent Habitat Hero Matt Puglisi mentioned controlling stormwater runoff as one of the main reasons he converted his landscape to native plants and removed his lawn so let's take a look at what stormwater runoff is and some ways to control it.

Simply put, stormwater runoff is any drop of water hitting the ground that does not evaporate or sink into the ground. This water runoff can carry pollutants like sediment, fertilizer, pet waste, and bacteria into our waterways, causing pollution. Once there they destroy aquatic habitat, and reduces oxygen in the water leading to the death of fish and other aquatic life. They contaminate the waterways making them unsafe to swim, fish and boat. The stormwater runoff adds extra sediment to the water, suffocating shellfish, causing them to die off. The fast moving storm water can cause erosion and again damage aquatic habitats. It will also bring with it pesticides, motor oil and other chemicals into the waterways making it unhealthy for humans and animals alike.

We as citizens of our community, and the larger Mother Earth have a responsibility and an obligation to protect our waterways and the creatures that inhabit them to keep them safe and provide usable places for humans and aquatic beings. There are many things we can do it in our own backyards to do promote clean water and control stormwater runoff by preventing it from leaving our property in the first place.

- Use "green mulch" (groundcover plants) to keep the ground covered
- Install a rain garden using native plants
- Use porous surfaces for walkways, driveways instead of concrete or asphalt
- Plant native plants including shrubs, trees and groundcovers
- Remove invasive species from you property
- Create living shorelines
