County Executive Announces March Town Hall Meetings

Annapolis, MD (March 3, 2015) – County Executive Steve Schuh today announced his administration will host a series of town hall meetings in March to discuss the 2015-16 budget and other important issues facing the county.

“The citizens of Anne Arundel County deserve to be heard during our budget process,” said Schuh. “I look forward to hearing input from across the county as we put a budget together to make Anne Arundel the best place to live, work, and start a business in Maryland.”

The meetings, which will take place over a span of three weeks, will allow the citizens of Anne Arundel County to ask questions of their government. The locations and times of the meetings are as follows:

- March 12th at 7:00 PM - Annapolis High School Auditorium 2700 Riva Road, Annapolis
- March 19th at 7:00 PM- Old Mill Middle School South Cafeteria 620 Patriot Lane, Millersville
- March 26th at 7:00 PM - North County High School Auditorium 10 East 1st Avenue Glen Burnie

The County Executive will be joined by members of his staff, as well as key members from departments across county government. Schuh will propose his budget on May 1st.
